

BROOKFIELD NOTES ♦ July 25 & 26, 2010
Pastor Roger Heintz

Family Priorities
Faith Development

Deuteronomy 4: 4-9

► Sounding the Alarm (George Barna - Absolute Confusion)

1. Knowledge of Scripture is at an all time low.
2. Our culture no longer embraces God's law.
3. The life values of teenagers and adults are often no different from the world's life values.
4. American families don't realize their power and influence.
5. The Christian Church has less and less impact in the lives of it's members and in the culture itself.

► Faith is necessary for Life in Jesus

Ephesians 2:8, Hebrews 11:6

► Faith Development is a biblical family priority

Deuteronomy 6:7-9

► Children are to be taught the Word

- In our conversations
- In our modeling
- Through reviewing/repetition

Faith at Home Question:

How can parents best support the faith development of children?
