

Worship Focus

Hanging on by a thread. Made it by the skin of your teeth. Just squeaking by. These are all phrases that capture how we often feel. We might make it through the day, or a project, or an event, but just barely.

What if you actually made it by a mile, won by a landslide, there was no contest, it was a blowout? That is what it means to be “more than conquerors.” And that is who we are because of Jesus.

Scripture

Romans 8:31-39; 1 Samuel 17:1-54; John 3:16-17

God’s Word to Remember

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him [God] who loved us. Romans 8:37
