

Sermon Notes & Reflections

WORSHIP FOCUS

Jesus' conversation with the rich man reveals that a life following Jesus is sacrificial. The rich man approaches Jesus confident that he has done all the right things. He is confident that he has walked "the good life" having followed all the commandments. However, in his desire to "achieve the next step" he walks away sad, because his priorities were incorrect. Jesus EX (changed) his life for ours therefore our lives as followers of Jesus are not about doing one more thing but rather making Jesus the king of our heart.

SCRIPTURE

Galatians 2:17-20; Mark 10:17-31

GOD'S WORD TO REMEMBER

Galatians 2:20 (the Message)

"Indeed, I have been crucified with Christ. My ego is no longer central. It is no longer important that I appear righteous before you or have your good opinion, and I am no longer driven to impress God. Christ lives in me. The life you see me living is not "mine," but it is lived by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I am not going to go back on that."

Life in the Cross

The Rich Young Man (Mark 10:17-31)

Letting go (Galatians 2:17-20)

My EX (change) discipleship application

LISTEN: What is God telling you to let go?

ACT: What is your plan to let that go?
